MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT AGAINST RYAN LITTLE

On January 19, 2023, Plaintiff Revv-Elation Auto Sales, LLC (hereafter “Revv-Elation”) filed this action against Defendants Atlantic Acceptance Corp. (hereafter, “AAC”) and Ryan Little (together, “Defendants”) [Doc. 1]. The complaint, civil cover sheet and summons were served on both Defendants on January 19, 2023 [Docs. 3 & 7], and the return of service was filed the following day, on January 20, 2023 [Doc. 7].

As such, each Defendant was due to file an answer in this matter no later than February 9, 2023. As of the date of filing this motion, one-hundred thirty-one (131) days have elapsed since Mr. Little was served. Mr. Little has never filed an answer and/or responsive pleading in this action.

Mr. Little is in default. Default judgment is proper against Mr. Little.

The complaint states that damages in this matter were at least $539,600.00 for fraud and breach of fiduciary duty. Wherefore, default judgment in the amount of $539,600.00 in favor of Revv-Elation and against Mr. Little is proper.

CONCLUSION

Revv-Elation respectfully requests that this Court grant its motion to enter a default judgment against Mr. Little in the amount of $539,600.00

Respectfully submitted, this 20th day of June, 2023.
